Last month James Abern received a letter from Walter Brooks, a former citizen, but now in Bardsburg, Cal., asking Mr. Abern to send him a hammer as he wished to use it in a drilling competition. This speaks well for Mr. Abern's brand of hammers.

Low prices and special values is the key-note to the summer clearance sales going on at the store of A. A. Smith & Brother, Miles granite building, this week. The things that are especially emphasized are, hosiery, shirts, collars, underwear, ties, cuff buttons, shirt buttons, suspenders, working shirts, men's and women's shoes, etc. A visit to them will open up to the mind a revelation in intrinsic values. Read their advertisement on the 8th page.

Shepard's High Class Moving Pictures and Novelty company opened at the Castle Park theatre last night for a week's run in this city and considering the great circus opposition had a very good attendance, at least a most appreciative one, and no one could look at the pictures shown by the Shepard company and not appreciate them. This company has the reputation of being the best. The pictures are life-size, clean and flickerless. The subjects vary from comedy to pathos and the programme is so arranged as to mix tears with laughter. In addition to these wonderful views is illustrated songs by Mr. Wm. Hagan, the lyric tenor, formerly with Primrose Minstrels. He is probably one of the best ever heard here. Miss Evelyn Wescott, a dainty comedienne scored a big hit with her songs and dances. The entertainment as a whole was clean and amusing. The programme will be changed nightly. The company remains here for the balance of the week and prices remain the same, 10, 20 and 30 cents.
